Sean Crum, MA, Art Historian

Returns by popular demand with another exciting lecture and slide show on

Impressionism: From Manet to Monet

The impressionists forged a new way of painting and looking at the natural world by featuring sketchy brush strokes, high level color and a keen awareness of the science of perception. Manet, Monet, Degas, and Renoir are featured in this lecture.

BASS EXTRAVAGANZA

Tuesday, May 24, 2016 at 7:00

Ann Gilbert and friends will explore the different ways in which the bass can soar. Bring open ears and minds as she serenades you on a carbon fiber bass, an upright electric Gel Bass and a modern Italian string bass.

Ann is a graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Music, Juilliard School of Music, & the University of Akron (Ph.D.). At present, Ann plays principal bass with the Cleveland Pops Orchestra, the Akron Symphony, the Blue Water Chamber Orchestra and as a member of the Firelands Symphony Orchestra. She currently teaches Suzuki and traditional bass for the Cleveland Music School Settlement.
