W-WAC Board Member JANE MUELLER is our longest reigning board member and a member almost from the beginning of the organization. Jane has been the Chairperson of the “FYI Opera” Series for over 27 years, as well as always lending a helping hand in every part of the organization. She is an avid “bird watcher” and has traveled extensively to enhance her fascinating hobby. She is also an active member and advocate of the Nature Center in Bay Village and the Westlake YMCA. When Jane isn't baking her famous Brownies, she can be found walking her dog Mimi, or riding her bicycle all around Westlake. Jane is the mother of 3 children (1 deceased), 1 granddaughter, 1 great granddaughter and a great friend to us all.

W-WAC Newest Business Sponsor: CENTER FOR ARTFUL LIVING, Carolyn L. Farrell

Foundation for Brain Health, located at 26633 Detroit Rd. Westlake. Our vision: To create a supportive community which helps people with dementia live lives of meaning & purpose. We also seek to help end the stigma against people with brain disease. We provide programming to the community to help support people's treatment plan and management of their illness. The programs are largely arts based and focus on multi-sensory elements because art imagination, the use of the senses are areas of the brain that are preserved abilities well into the disease process of dementia. They offer arts enrichment sessions that include: visual art, music, and creative storytelling and poetry. These engaging activities strengthen communication and provide socialization. Enrichment is provided at no cost. Contact them at 440-414-0434 or info@farrellfoundation.com
